For your reflection (in preparation for the message):

Have you ever been an ambassador? If so, how did you represent or advocate for the cause?

Harmony: Man with others

Harmonious living recognizes each person as precious, strengthens relationships, and represents God well.

Biblical Harmony is the composite product when humanity lives peaceably together with God, self, others, and creation to form a cohesive whole.

2 Corinthians 5:18

Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation.

Romans 7:19

For the good that I want, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.

Hebrews 4:15-16

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin. Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Colossians 3:12-14

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Ephesians 4:32

Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

Romans 12:10

Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor.

Luke 6:31

And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them.

Romans 12:16

Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight.

1 Peter 4:8

Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.

1 Peter 3:8

Finally, all of you, have unity of mind, sympathy, brotherly love, a tender heart, and a humble mind.

John 13:34-35

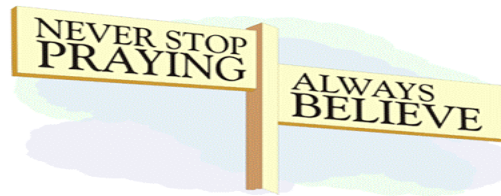

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

Harmonious living recognizes each person as precious, strengthens relationships, and represents God well.
