For your reflection (in preparation for the message):

What was the best “team” you were part of? What made it so?

All Hands On Deck—Introduction

All Hands on Deck – Naval term (1700s)

Everyone is needed to navigate the future challenges

Mark 2:1-12

When Jesus saw “their” faith, the man was healed
“their” – the team!

It took every member of the team to make the healing possible

What makes a team, a team?

- 1) Every member is valued for their importance by every other member
- 2) Every member plays their role (no more and no less)

Lesson from John Wooden:

The best teams are those whose members love each other

Take-aways:

- 1) Give thanks for those “teammates” who’ve helped you get where you are today
- 2) Think about the role YOU can play to help the church fulfill its team’s purpose

Mark 2:1-12 NRSV

¹When he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home. ²So many gathered around that there was no longer room for them, not even in front of the door; and he was speaking the word to them. ³Then some people came, bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them. ⁴And when they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and after having dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic lay. ⁵When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.” ⁶Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, ⁷“Why does this fellow speak in this way? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?” ⁸At once Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were discussing these questions among themselves; and he said to them, “Why do you raise such questions in your hearts? ⁹Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Stand up and take your mat and walk’? ¹⁰But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralytic— ¹¹“I say to you, stand up, take your mat and go to your home.” ¹²And he stood up, and immediately took the mat and went out before all of them; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”
