Worship Extras November 7, 2021

Today is our annual All Saints Day celebration. On the first Sunday in November, we remember the church members who have passed away in the last year – along with all our loved ones who have gone on ahead of us to the kingdom.

For those family members of our departed church members who are here today, we want you to know how grateful we are to have you in our presence this morning.

On this day we also publish an annual All Saints Day book, which describes ways our saints have blessed the ministries of the church by leaving gifts with Central, and it also describes ways we all can continue that tradition and make similar gifts in the future. There is a copy for every household, and you may pick that book up after worship in the Friendship Center.

There will be no children's message, but if you have young children who would like to have something to do during worship, there are activity bags in the Narthex. Feel free to get up and get one (or two) any time you might need them.

We will be collecting an offering today, but will not have a special invitation to do so later in the service. If you wish to give, there is a brass bowl in the Narthex, and you may place your offering in that bowl on your way out of worship – or you can give on line (www.cccdisciples.org) or text to give (217-212-2173).

The journey of our salvation cannot be made without encountering death. But by faith, death is never the end of the journey. The end is bathed in joy and in celebration. It is the intent of this service to move us from death and its dark sadness to the joy and celebration of the heavenly kingdom.
