Blanket Sunday offering
August 19 and 26

A blanket is an essential item in an emergency. After a disaster, it can keep you warm, provide shelter (as a temporary tent) and even become a satchel for carrying your belongings. Blankets also symbolize God's love as they cover us and protect us. Because of donations from congregations like ours, Church World Service was able to distribute more than 1,500 blankets to the victims of last fall's hurricanes. CWS seeks our help again for the annual Blanket Sunday offering, to be collected Aug. 19 and 26. Please consider giving generously.

About Today's Music

Anthem Festival Piece on "St. Anne"

Words: Isaac Watts
Music: Eugene Butler

O God our Help in ages past, our Hope for years to come,
Our Shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal Home.

Before the hills in order stood or earth received her frame from everlasting Thou art God to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night, before the rising sun.

Time like an ever-rolling stream bears all its sons away,
They fly forgotten as a dream dies at the opening day.

O God our Help in ages past, Our Hope for years to come,
Be Thou our Guard while life shall last, and our eternal Home!
